Who is the design user?	Why does design need to be made? need(s)	What is the story of use for the design?	What is needed knowledge for self-understanding of the project? self-understanding	What is needed knowledge for self-understanding of the design solution? self-understanding
How to develop and select ideas?	What aspect can increase the longevity of the design?	How to reduce materials waste during design making?	Which information the users should know about the design? transparency	Which is the leading sustainable focus of the design?
What is the design purpose?	What needs to be done before ideation?	How can emotional attachment be brought to the design? emotional attachment	Which social context that the design is used for?	Which cultural context is the design based on?
ls the design considered eco- design? And why?	ls the design considered circular design? And why?	Efficiency on which aspect? economy, society or environment?	Reduce-reuse-recycle Has the design considered this aspect?	May other living species be effected by the design in production?
How to bring up the inclusiveness in the design?	How to repair the design after usage?	Where are the limitations of the design project?	What can do differently? reflection and improvement	ecosystem